WE'RE CATCHING ON

We're Catching on! That's right, we're catching on to everything you do. From the wins to the loses. We're catching on to sports, school and community activities, clubs, school functions, we're catching on to how you feel.

In the past year we have tried to capture all of your feelings and emotions Whether it was getting all excited about watching Narbonne win another football game, or unhappiness because the guy in front of you got the last ticket for that dance you really wanted to go to, but wherever you were or whatever you did we were there.

Some, But Not To All

Although our school wasn't really new, this year we had a new faculty, administrators, football league, and a new decade. There were also new problems that involved the whole school such as, the incident that triggered racial differences. Another problem was the graffiti that disgraced the school.

Many of our new faculty weren't familiar with the campus, not only did new students get lost, but some of the new teachers got lost also. The campus is shaped like a snail and if one didn't know how the buildings were lettered he got lost. With the help of the new directory, everyone was aided in finding their way around.

Narbonne's Varsity Football has done better this year in the new Freeway League than in past years. Our team made the Play-Offs which helped bring more spirit to the school.

One of the things that was new to us was the prejudiced atmosphere among the students. This led to fights on campus and the graffiti that upset not only the faculty and administrators, but the students as well. The administrators and faculty were so angry that they were motivated into offering a reward for any information leading to the vandals. These things we hoped to forget as we tried not to let them happen in the future.

Can you remember the last day of summer? You were either last minute clothes shopping, away on vacation—still—or maybe you were at the beach trying to forget that tomorrow you had to get up and go to school. But wherever you were, you just had to face the fact that tomorrow was school. How did you feel? Were you excited because you were a senior and this was your last year? Were you really excited about seeing all of your friends who had somehow lost touch over the summer? Or were you really depressed because you had to take that dumb algebra class for the 3rd time.

These were just some of the things that you might have been feeling. But either way, the year had to go and you had to make the best of it.

Even with all of your lectures, homework, classwork, boring filmstrips with their beeps telling you when to change frames or to wake up, and the bulletins that nobody ever listened to, you got to see your best friend, girlfriend or boyfriend, went to our games after school, found out about future dances, and looking forward to all of your holidays.

Activities

Pep rallies, powder puff, noon concerts, assemblies, crazy daze, charity drives, school plays . . .WHEW! There were so many school activities to choose from this year, and it was a great that a lot of the students "caught on" to some of these activities. Apathetic was a word definitely not used for the students this year! Most of them participated in something or another. And what was great was that they all had fun being involved in that activity or activities! It livened up the school day. Can you imagine how boring the school year would have been if there were no school activities at all? Getting up, going to school, doing classwork, studying, eating, hearing lectures, taking notes, seeing boring films, writing essays, then going home and finishing up your homework . . . boring, huh? Well, this year was not boring, and was one a lot of us will never forget.

Homecoming '79

The theme for the homecoming dance was "Make it Last". Most people wished it would have lasted a little longer. "Just one more dance", they kept saying.

A lot of hard work goes into making homecoming really special. Boy's League and Girl's League, including Mrs. Woodcock, devoted their lunches, and also their time at the dance to make it the best homecoming ever. To the average person you would think there was no big deal to planning this event. But there are always problems.

To get a good hotel, you have to book a year in advance. But the committee was a little too late. Everything was booked, so, thanks to Mrs. Woodcock, we had our homecoming at the Edgewater Hyatt House, November 2, 1979. It was either that or the Sloss Gym.

The band was "Carry On," who are a familiar group to Narbonne, as they played at last year's homecoming dance.

It was unusual this year because we had a male court also. The queen was Lolita Adkins, King–Kerry Maetani, the 12th grade princesses were Suzette Bennett, Stacey Nagata, Janis Goya, Teri Watanabe, and Shari White. The 12th grade princes were Jimmy Basham, Gerald Franklin, Ronnie Mack, Roger Reed, and Gerald Ricard. 11th grade princess–Melanie Aratani and prince–Bruce Moore. 10th grade princess–Nadine Banzal and prince–Scott Mastroluca.

All in all, it was a fantastic day.

We've Got The Spirit!

Hey happy Narbonne Gauchos! Were you at the Orientation Assembly? What's that you ask? Let me refresh your memory. First, it was scheduled for the week of Sept. 24, 1979. But it was so hot, it was rescheduled for the week of Oct. 1, 1979. When it finally got underway everyone trotted to the stands during period 4A. As soon as everything settled down our impressive marching band, fancy drill team, snappy tall flags, and whippy small flags came stepping out. As the band played the National Anthem, everyone stood in honor. Then the band played Jazzman as the units did their routines. When they were leaving the field a plane flew by trailing the message "Hi Narbonne, You're Great." Then Principal Dr. Browning gave a very stirring speech. After which Kerry Maetani (ASB President) introduced the active Student Body Council. Next, the enthusiastic Varsity and Bee Cheerleaders came running and jumping out, accompanied by our Gaucho Mascot. Then, what we've all been waiting for! They introduced our awesome Varsity and Bee football teams. They ran through a bunch of plays and gave us a glimpse of what was in store for us. Later Drama did a skit concerning the Activity Card. Great! Why? Cause . . .

Back-to-School

School year resolutions: I will not ditch class, I will not yell at the teacher, I will not be tardy, I will not ask the teacher if I can have the hall pass and return to class a half hour later, well, maybe . . . It was a new school year and a fresh new start. The slate had been wiped clean and you weren't behind in your work. It was time to see old friends and meet new ones. Everyone was ready to display a tan and maybe even a new haircut! But still, it was kind of hard to get back into the old grind: getting up early, doing homework, taking tests, running to class, and waiting in long lunch lines, what fun. Hey! It was fun though, maybe not the work, but the dances, football games, clubs, activities, and assemblies were fun! And now you can sit back, relax, and relish the fond memories of all you've accomplished and the excitement of accomplishing them. Just remember, it all started with back-to-school.

Gauchos arise in Spirit

In the beginning of the 1979 year, we were all "catching on" to the new experiences we were going through. For it seemed that the outlook in school had changed greatly. Finally, the majority of the students had Gaucho spirit, and all were proud to see that at last our school had gotten into the active wave length of each other.

The students were joining clubs, helping others, carrying the spirit to away games, and just simply giving their support. More people than ever were joining Pep club, and the trend of school spirit seemed to "catch on" throughout the school year. At last mighty Narbonne High School has "caught on" to the enthusiasm which was long awaited.

Whats Happenin' . . .

The year of 79 was a good year for fads. Everyone was into everything. Rollerskating and mopeds seemed to be the way of transportation. Music seemed to have an effect on everyone as well. People were enjoying music from such performers as Donna Summer, Michael Jackson, the Knack, Supertramp, and Barbara Striesand. Fashion took a turn for the better. In more ways than one. Hairstyling became a way of life with braids, perms, and pinups. The "GQ" look was the favorite dress style for the men, while the young ladies styled with the "cosmos" look. They dazzled themselves with decorative pins. Shoes have also changed for the better. The popular shoe for the young ladies were Candies, (a strap sandal). The young men were steppin' in "Vans", (boat or deck shoes. All around this has been a great and exciting year for fads and it kinda makes you wonder what's going to be the 'IN' thing next year!

Powder Puff—Spells Fun!

There comes a time at Narbonne when charming girls transform into agressive players and dashing young men don cheerleading skirts and "pom-pons" to spark up spirit in the crowded stands. On November 21, 1979, during fourth period, the annual Powder Puff game opened with the girls warming up on the field. Following the National Anthem, all eyes were on those "foxy" cheerleaders led by Mascot Gerald Ricard. The game started with the All-Stars kicking off to the Seniors. All-Stars' Jenny Lukasik and Mika Patterson put in much effort and helped make some remarkable plays but Seniors' Shari White and Pam Burgess led the way for the Seniors who dominated the game. Half-time brought some fun entertainment from the Key Club. Rick Mitchell's "Turbo" was driven onto the field and the Key Club performed to the hit sound track, "Greased Lightning." The cheerleaders, of course, were enjoyed by everyone. As the game continued, the Seniors went all out and won with the score of 18-0.

The Rich "Kids" of 1980

The Key Club Car Show was originally conceived five years ago. At that time it was a Boy's League activity designed to increase interest in cars. There were two men from Kiwanis and Miss Kordones who judge the car show. They did a fine job of selecting the winners in the three categories. The categories were small cars (including sport cars), big cars, trucks and vans. There was also a guest category to allow the showing of cars other than students. This prevented a problem that surfaced in past years when students entered cars other than their own. The car show was successful this year, there was high student interest. Publicity and organization efforts were conducted by Lester Chung.

Saturday Jam

This year's Christmas Dance was the first backwards dance of the year. It was also the first dance to be held on a Saturday in the history of Narbonne. The band that played for this special event was Dreams. They entertained the crowd from 8 o'clock to 11 o'clock at night. Dreams played a variety of favorite tunes. The dance floor was always crowded, but there was always room for more. There was a great turn out, even outsiders wanted to check it out. Towards the end of the dance, no one wanted to leave. They didn't want it to end, but it had to.

Fall Play: A Big

"Everyone in their places! Get ready because the Curtain's Going Up!" said Miss Burgess. Yes, the curtain went up for the first time for the fall play on Thursday, November 15th, 1979 at 3:00 p.m. with other performances on the 16th and 17th of November. Our hard working play production class spent two months everyday after school from 2-6 p.m., including a full day on a holiday rehearsing for this uproarious play. Although they had some problems such as a large cast and some people dropping out, the few replacements worked out very well.

An interesting thing that happened was Gina Manning's father flew all the way from San Francisco just to see her perform in the play.

The play itself was hilarious. The students exaggerated their parts in the play making it hard not to be in tears laughing. All the costumes were thought up by the students, with special thanks to Dora Betancourt. She was a lot of help in dressing everyone up, and Gabi Loza assisted on make-up.

Production Success!!!

Mrs. Mirch was very pleased with the outcome of the play, dealing with problems encountered by a new drama teacher. In many ways she can relate to this play as of one year ago, she too, was the new drama teacher at school. She directed the very successful play, "Harvey" at Narbonne last spring.

Mrs. Mirch said the cast was very surprised and pleased, as the reaction of the audience was better than they expected. But they would like to have a larger audience next time. A lot of work goes into the making of a good performance. "The audience is just as important as the cast and crew," commented Mrs. Mirch. People don't realize this until they experience the struggles themselves, but it's all worth it in the end.

Finally Feeling Like Seniors

The Senior Parents' Reception, held on December 6th, marked the start of the many Senior activities. Several of Barry Manilow's songs were performed along with musical selections from "Annie" and "Fiddler on the Roof." Janet Rothermel and Rosalyn Myles combined their dancing talents and performed a jazz-ballet duet. The high point of the program was the slide presentation. Kathleen Yang sang while many of the seniors (and even some of the faculty members) baby pictures were shown. Many of the slides were of the seniors in class just being their "crazy" selves. The program ended with the entire cast singing, "I Can't Smile Without You," by Barry Manilow. Following the performance, the Seniors and their parents were served refreshments in the MPR. There they met and talked to other parents and enjoyed themselves. The seniors met their friends' parents and got to know them better. The day ended with the parents not believing that their own little babies are actually graduating.

For the twenty-seventh year the Christmas Basket Drive has been successfully conducted. This year more than sixty-five local families had a Christmas they will always remember because of the Key Club, students, and faculties.

Each willing homeroom decided on choosing a small family or a large family or sharing one with another homeroom. Over seventy-five homerooms participated and brought from small items like can foods, money, clothes, and toys to large items such as Christmas trees to bicycles. Eugene Woo, Key Club treasurer was proud to comment that the student body and community raised $2,972.72. He stated that "This year, the overall amount raised by the student body and faculty, in addition to the donations generously given by local organizations, was greater than the amount received last year."

With Key Club intuition this Christmas Basket Drive turned out a smooth, worthwhile community project with leaders; Key Club advisor Mr. Raymond Blinn and chairman Daren Kimura and David DiMeglio.

Narbonne's Best Sellers

With a feeling of Christmas spirit, the Book Fair did very well in selling a large assortment of books, magazines, and calendars. Mrs. Marinella, the librarian, and Mrs. Mayeda of Keywanettes, sponsors of the book fair, were pleased with the success of the fair and hopes to have another one next year.

The Book Fair sold a variety of titles from psychology to mysteries, animals to romances, science fictions to children books, movies and celebrities to astrology, cookbooks to best sellers, which would have pleased even the most finicky reader.

Magazines and calendars, a new item at the Book Fair were demanding, and ideas to sparkling up buyers. The best sellers were the Mad and Surfer calendars. The Book Fair was opened up to all students at Narbonne who received six percent off on every book bought. Many English classes attended it.

Approximately 600 books were sold and made a profit of $292.57 which was used for purchasing book racks. Mrs. Marinella was pleased with the participation, publications, and the demand that came from the students.

Feeling the Night Rhythms

Keeping to the beat of the music, boogieing down, and swaying to deep, vibrating tones of the bass are what dancing's all about. Noon dances that took place during lunch, costing only ten cents, sportnights that gave you something to do on a lonely Friday night, and the more elaborate Christmas Dance are some of the dances that took place here at our school. Recordings of popular songs got everything going at the Noon and Sportsnight dances. At the Christmas Dance, however, everyone was up and dancing the night away to the live, new band, "Dreams." Refreshments of punch, cookies, nuts and mints were enjoyed by most everyone.

Catching On To the Spirit Of Christmas

Christmas comes but once a year, and so does Narbonne's Winter Concert, which was held at 7:30 pm, on Wednesday, December 19, 1970 in the auditorium. The fine talents of our Jazz Ensemble, Gospel Choir, Advanced Dance Class, and Choir got together for an enjoyable evening of fun and musical Christmas entertainment. The Jazz Ensemble, led by Mr. Robert Powell, and the newly formed Gospel Choir, Performed during the 1st half, getting the audience into a happy mood. Standing ovations were something common! Then the Choir, directed by Mrs. Helen Prinz, zapped the Christmas spirit to all, with the help of solos by Pia Yjounggren and Linda and Susan Kodaira, and also a skit of "I Saw Mommy Kissing Santa Claus". The Advanced Dance Class ended the show with a fast dance. All the show needed was snow, and that's what it ended with.

World

The 1970's was one heck of a decade. It was a decade of changes, happiness, tragedies and controversies. Remember how in 1970, the mini skirt became one of the biggest controversies of the year? Or how about the jewelry made of wood, shells, stones, feathers, Indian beads and leather? Or the wide and hard or slim and soft belts? What about those bright colored fabrics that were used? Quite a difference from the styles of 1979. Straight legged jeans, skirts with slits, the disco look, terri, valour, wrap around pants, spiked heels, double belts, boots, and Gauchos, were some of the fashions of the late 70's.

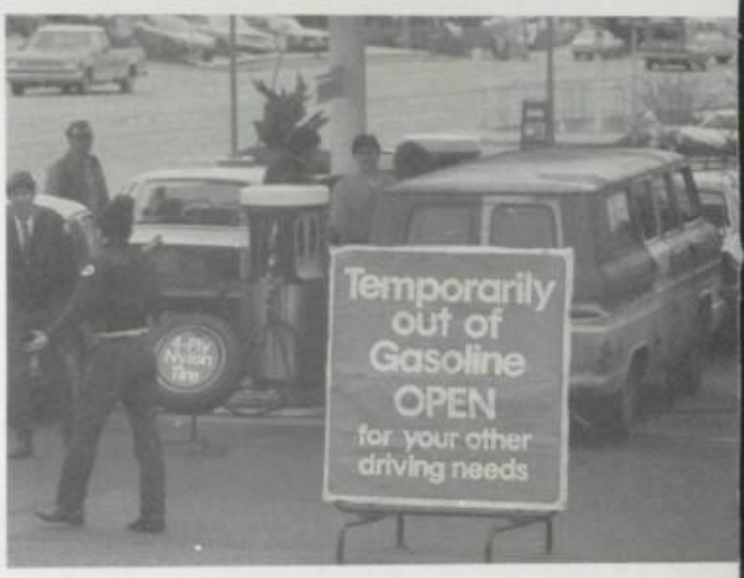
Musically, a lot of new bands popped up on the music scene. Also a lot of the old bands became popular all over again, such as the Bee Gees. They came a long way from Massachusetts in the 60's to Stayin' Alive from the smash motion picture Saturday Night Fever. The Carpenters were popular during the early 70's with hits such as Solitaire and Please Mr. Postman. Punk rock started in 1977 with the Sex Pistols and the Ramones. The Cars, Blondie and the Knack followed. In 1972, "Soul Music" became big. Marvin Gaye, the Jackson 5, Al Green and Roberta Flack were among the biggest. Reggae made a strong attempt to break through in the U.S. music scene. Johnny Nash became the first American Artist to succeed with several reggae singles. Some new starts were Barry Manilow, Eric Carmen, Peter Frampton, Donna Summer, Van Halen, ABBA, Supertramp, Boz Scaggs, Cheap Trick, the Commodores and a five member group called the Bay City Rollers. Some of the top hits of the 70's were Bridge Over Troubled Waters, The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face, I Honestly Love You, I Write the Songs, You Light Up My Life, How Deep Is Your Love, My Sharona, and Babe.

Because of poor flying regulations 144 people were involuntarily killed when the Pacific Southwest Airlines jet collided with a light plane over San Diego. The accident that claimed these people was the worst crash in U.S. aviation history.

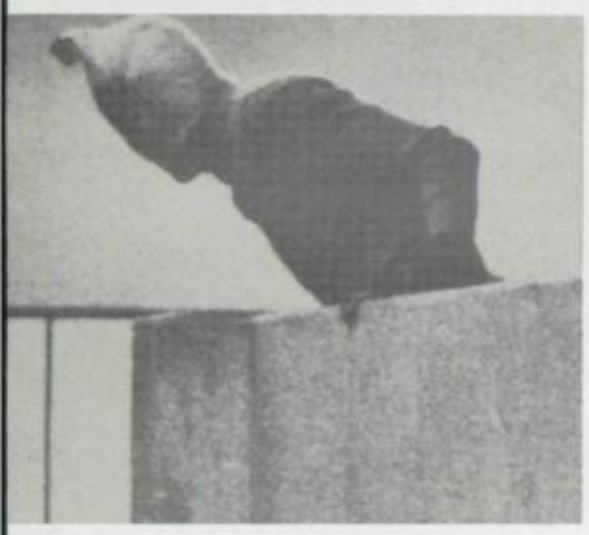
The devastating forest fire reddened the Los Angeles skyline and burned up millions of dollars in property.

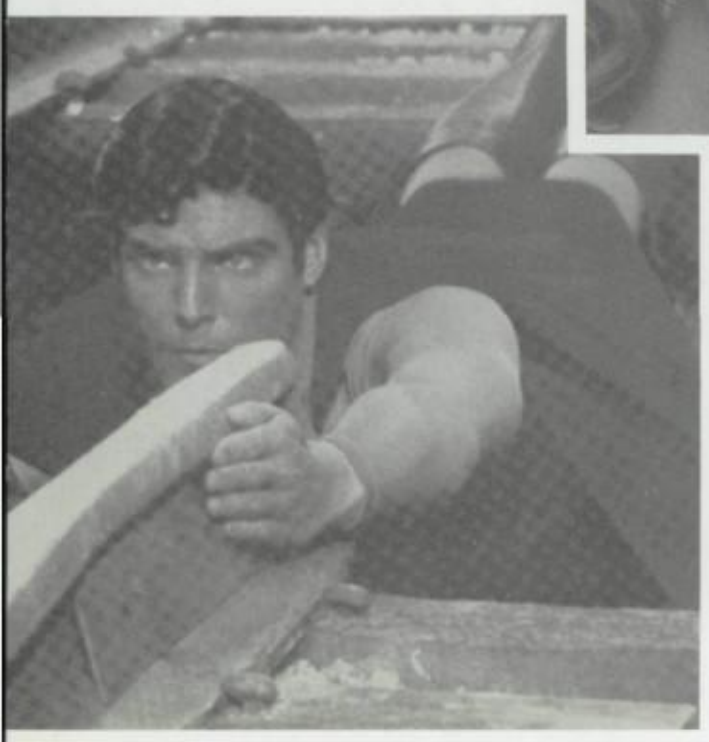
In 1973, Arab Oil Embargo stopped the flow of oil when U.S. supported Israel. This boycott produced shortages, higher prices and long lines.

After the inauguration, President Carter walked down the street.



Events





Ayatullah Khomeini changed the foreign policy in the Mid East.
Heiress Patricia Hearst served time in federal prison for her activities with the Symbionese Liberation Army.
During the Munich Olympics 1974, Arab guerillas attack and killed eleven Israel athletes.
In 1978, Jack Nicholson starred in "One Flew Over The Cukoo's Nest" which received the Best Motion Picture academy award.
The remake of "Superman" brought many dedicated fans to the box offices and made it the best picture of 1979.
Bringing back the happy days of the 50's was the movie "Grease".

The deaths of Elvis Presley on August 16th, and Bing Crosby on October 14th surpassed any other event in popular music in 1977. Some other beloved celebraties who past on were Jim Croce, Groucho Marx, Freddie Prinz, Jack Benny, Keith Moon, Bob Crane, Judy Garland, John Wayne, Cass Elliot, Bruce Lee, Susan Hayward, Charlie Chaplin, Sal Mineo, Janis Joplin, Bobby Darin, Jimi Hendrix, Ed Sullivan, Ozzie Nelson, Betty Grable and of course, Morris the cat.

From "The Partridge Family" to "Eight is Enough," television shows went through a lot of changes. Some of the most popular shows were, and are Family Affair, Betwitched, The Six Million Dollar Man, Happy Days, Three's Company, The Incredible Hulk, Charlie's Angels, The Brady Bunch, Gilligan's Island, Maude, M*A*S*H, and, of course, Mork and Mindy. The most successful mini-series of television history was, of course, Roots. A staggering 130 million Americans watched at least part of the $6 million, 12 hour series.

Some of the popular movies of the decade were The Poseidon Adventure, One Flew Over the Cuckoos Nest, The Godfather, Annie Hall, Coma, Jaws, Grease, Saturday Night Fever, The Exorcist, Superman, Star Wars, and The Omen.

1976 was the year of the Bicentennial, bringing with it the Bicentennial Minutes. Almost every house had an even greater fourth of July than the years past. After all, our nation was 200 years old.

Some other happenings were Howard Jarvis and Proposition 13, the unforgettable Jonestown incident, Marvin vs. Marvin, Ex President Nixon and the Watergate scandal, Three Mile Island, the first test tube baby, the plane crash of the DC-10 in Chicago, the first Polish Pope, the Rams went to the Super Bowl, the Mr. Bill t-shirts, busing, the popularity of the mini trucks, Camaros and Z's. Everyone started taking better care of their health. Jogging and tennis as well as other sports became very popular during the late 70's. The 70's started with the ending of the Vietnam War. The price of gold and silver shot up in the late 70's. Ali finally retired, (again). And the Boston Celtics signed on the first women basketball player to play ball for their team. In comedy, we say a 2 inch ball of clay became a superstar. With the success of Saturday night live, came many great stars which went on to make their own movies. Such stars were Chevy Chase, John Belushi, Dan Akroyd and Gilda Radner. There was Steven Martin, whose book "Cruel Shoes", and his first movie "The Jerk" made him a millionaire and a huge success.

"A Fun Learning Experience"

Along with the usual Brain Bowl, in which the girls played the guys, Faculty vs. Students Volleyball Game, Modeling Exhibition, film in the auditorium, and the Armed Forces, there were a few additions to the schedule. Jane Addams held a very successful Bake Sale and Girls League sold delicious pickles. Green and Gold Staff spent the period listening to people who expressed their opinions about school, which was to be printed in the next school newspaper. There was also a place for geniuses to play Chess, Backgammon, or Checkers. At the Popular Photo Sale, over 150 photos were sold in the limited time that was available.

The Activity Period was meant to be a learning experience where people could also have fun.

Assembly—(ə sem ble) noun, plural (blies) a group of persons gathered together, as for worship, instruction, entertainment, etc.

This is the meaning and purpose of our assemblies on campus. Many people enjoy the concerts held on the stage of the Circle Area. There are also dances that always bring students together. Reward assemblies and plays are among some of the other gatherings on campus. Most of our assemblies have great turn-outs.

PURE AS THE DRIVEN SNOW ;

This year's Spring Play was a melodramatic, old-fashioned one. It contains all of the ingredients; The hero, the heroine, and the villain. The play is called "Pure As The Driven Snow; Or A Working Girl's Secret." The heroine, Purity Dean (oh, how pure!), is the working girl with the secret, Mortimer Frothingham, is the name of the villain (a fiercely moustached rogue), and a noble hero who follows the romantic calling of working in a pickle factory. Purity was looking for shelter from the storm when she came to the inn which was run by Jonathan Logan and his good wife, Zamah. Purity accepts a job as a maid at the inn where she meets the brave Leander. They fall in love at first sight.

Mortimer, her ex-boss, has found her and has forced his unwanted attentions upon her. Morty tried to get Leander out of the way by locking him in a room with a time bomb which is due to explode any minute and blow our hero to smithereens. Leander escaped in the nick of time and prevents Frothingham from carrying out his evil deeds. Morty disappeared for awhile, but returned and the plot once again thickened. Purity's secret was discovered, it acted as a boomerang, bringing her great wealth. "I worked with experienced actors and actresses. It was a great cast and I was happy to know and work with them," commented Mrs. Mirich, "they were also fun to work with."

Fun-d-Run II

Here it is—the sequel to the highly successful event that raised seven thousand dollars for the student body last year. From the success of Fun-d-Run '79 came—Yes!—Fun-d-Run II of 1980.

A whole hour before school was devoted to a run for money. Approximately one hundred sixty members of the student body participated along with twenty faculty members and even the Principal Dr. Browning! Everyone who ran got a Fun-d-Run T-shirt. Trophies were awarded to longest distance runners Ken Prinzi and Gretchen Pfeiffer who ran 53 and 40 laps respectively. One of our handicapped students, John Lindsey, did extremely well on a wheelchair with a total of 27 laps. Every activity is paid through the student body—athletics, dances, assemblies, etc. So the pledges were important. This year there were about three thousand two hundred sponsors.

1. And they're off to a good start at the Fun-d-Run!
2. John Lindsey still looking strong!
3. After the run, participants receive their Fun-d-Run T-shirts.

4. Sonya is letting Derrielle and Carolos know just how she feels.

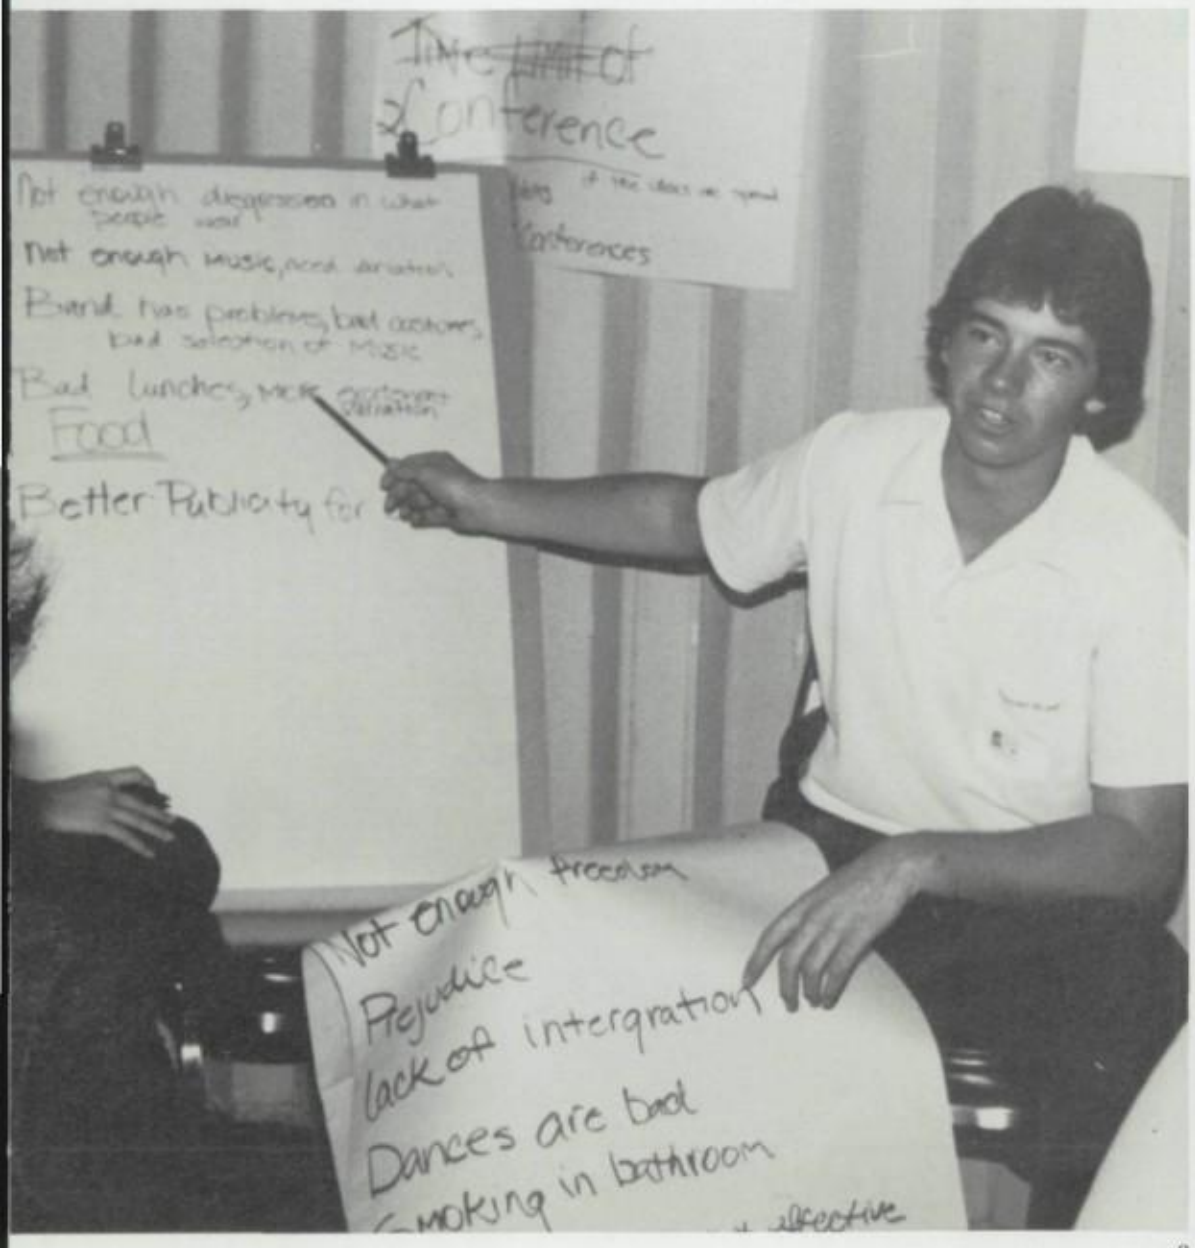
A Very Successful Seminar



3

On February 21, 1980, Narbonne held a Human Relations Conference, which was held at the Airport Park Hotel. The purpose of this conference was to make the students, with the aid of teachers, more aware of their school. The conference was to help improve the school, and end racial conflicts. It turned out to be a big success. It received 100% cooperation. There was a terrific speaker, Dr. Dave Grant, who really motivated and enthused the audience. Lunch was superb; the students and teachers were served a delicious meal by the hotel waiters. With the outstanding success of this conference, there are plans for future conferences.

Academics

After you take away lunch and noon activities, sports and clubs, our band and pep units, dances and pep rallies, and plays, you're finally left with a mere tidbit of school . . . academic classes. What is academics, you might ask? Only the foundation for the American school system.

But through the confusion of school activities one might remember a math class or maybe an English class. There might be that one teacher or the friends you spent a semester with. Whatever you remembered, if you ever found yourself in a real classroom, then you're sure to remember some of the faces in the following pages.

1. Rusty Cashman skimming over his possibilities for answers on the test.
2. Wyman Green and Sung Kim contemplate if there really is enough in there to blow up the school.
3. Eric Gray and Orlando Hutchinson wonder if Mat Seeber knows what he is talking about.

That friendly, helpful face found in the Principal's office, belongs to Narbonne's new principal, Dr. Richard Browning. Before becoming the head Gaucho, he was a principal at Freemont and Dodson. When asked if he wanted to see any changes here, he replied that he would like to see improved human relations and more academics at Narbonne, with all striving for excellence. Another question was, "What do you like most about Narbonne?"; it turned out he liked many things; friendly students, school spirit, great teachers, and the A.P. classes, to name a few. Dr. Browning was also asked if he would like to stay awhile, his reply?—"I hope to stay quite awhile."

Clubs & Organizations

With all our school spirit, it's not surprising to see so many dedicated clubs and organizations on campus this year. These clubs are not only designed for fun and games, but they also provide service for our school and surrounding communities. There are clubs for every interest in the student body, ranging from Key Club to backgammon, or for that matter, to whatever your interest may be. So before anyone decides to form a new club, they should take a look around. And who knows? They might even find a club for themselves.

1. Do you see that ghost or is it my imagination?
2. "Smile you're on candid camera."
3. Ha Ha—they can never beat me because I'm the champ.

2

PLANNING +

Some of the duties of Associated Student Body President were to call to order all Student Body functions, lead Student Council, and represent Narbonne at Area 1 meetings. "Being President is a full time job, but it's very rewarding and gives you a sense of power," stated Kerry Maetani, A.S.B. President.

Things just don't happen on campus. It takes a lot of time in planning and organizing activities like all of the assemblies, sporting events, Noon Dances and Activities.

There are seven committees and each has a duty to perform. The committees are the Executive, who are in charge of all major decisions; Sportsmanship, who plan all of our sports events; Elections, who run all of the elections held on campus; S.I.C.C.; Publicity; and Assemblies.

It took a lot of hard work, but Student Government pulled it off. Organization, publicity, and responsibility was what it took to make the activity period, Friday night Sportsnights, noon activities and special assemblies successful.

Time out of Leadership class was needed to plan all of the events for the Spring semester. Each member of Student Government spent more than one class period working on school events.

They tried to avoid any long periods of boredom by planning noon activities or pep rallies.

When confused in algebra, you got help by asking your teacher. But where did you go when you needed information? Just ask your senator. Who's a senator? They were representatives from each homeroom who went to a meeting during second, third, or fourth period once every two weeks, and information on whats happening to report to you in your homeroom. If you had any problems about the campus, you could always count on your senators to represent you. This year there were approx. 15 senators who attended the meetings in the Multi-Purpose Room or auditorium to listen and take part in discussion.

So if you saw an improvement on campus or know a little more about your school, give your senator some credit for doing his/her job.

Our class officers helped to plan the activities with Student Government. Senior class officers organized all of the senior activities like Senior Parents Reception, Prom which was held on Saturday, April 12, t-shirt sales, and senior Newsletters. This year the class officers tried to do something new. They replaced the Sadie Hawkins Dance with the Leap Year Masquerade Ball. The class officers tried to make our year most enjoyable.

A Key To Service

Share Togetherness, that was the theme for the Key Clubbers this past year. Who chose the theme? The District did. Our Key Club belonged to Division 19 Cal-Nev-Ha District. It coordinates with the community, school, senior citizens, the lonely and disadvantaged children. One big thing the club does every year is the Christmas Basket Drive, and this year is no exception. This all started in 1953 by the Liason group. The drive isn't an all school effort. The club is responsible for everything. They planned and delivered the gifts. They just asked the school to help out.

This year was the first year the Key Clubbers sold calendars that they made. The money they made from it took them to the district convention which was held in San Diego in March.

"The Key Clubbers looked back at their varied experiences as beneficial to recognizing their role in not only school, but also involvement in their community activities," says Mr. Blinn.

At a special luncheon held for just the faculty, the guys served each teacher as they came by.

David DiMeglio talks to the rest of the club during one of their meetings.

Service Is What It's All About

The purpose of the Keywanettes was to serve both the school and the community. Their activities included a Famous Amos cookie sale. They were pleased to give up their Halloween night to take handicapped children trick or treating.

Along with community services, one of their most significant projects was working with the Peace Corps on a project in the Philippines. Keywanettes raised $1,200 by selling almond cookies, having bake sales and other fund raisers in order to build a water well for a small community in the Philippines.

Keywanettes were involved in such school services as selling tickets at all of the home games ranging from the football games to the girls' sport games. They also changed the marque in the front of the school, helped the librarian after school was out, and even participated in the book fair that was held in December.

Keywanettes is not only a club at school, but also a club affiliated with other clubs from California, Nevada, and Hawaii.

Homecoming . . . They Made It Work!

The Girl's League was responsible for the Homecoming Dance. They designed the tickets, got the band for the dance, which was Carry On—and decorated the dance in which Janis Goya was in charge. They also thought of the theme, "Make It Last." The president was Stacey Nagata. Other officers were Kathy Yang, Ronna Krant, Pam Tonomura, and Rita Gutierrez. Another thing they were in charge of, was Girl's Day.

Boy's League's main project was the Homecoming Game. There were about twenty members who met in 05 and discussed preparations for halftime of the Homecoming Game. They were in charge of court elections and had set up the field for the introduction of the court. Boy's League also was responsible for arrangements concerning the cars, and drivers on the field, and the flowers presented to the court. All of this took careful planning by different committees.

Jane Addams was a service organization for Junior and Senior girls; They were required to have a high grade point average. The attendance and involvement has improved greatly from last year. Jane Addams, sponsored by Mrs. Kobayashi, ushered at plays, luncheons, and many other special occasions. They were very helpful to the counselors, especially with organizing student programs. They also sponsored, with the Knights, the Candy Cane sale. They also participated in the annual Lomita Junction Jubilee.

Opposite of Jane Addams, was Knights a service club which consisted of approximately 20 members junior and senior boys. There duties were to raise the flag in the morning, watch the auditorium doors at assemblies, supervise in the cafeteria, and check the lockers after each semester ended. Although Mr. Didinger was new at sponsoring the Knights, he put forth great effort in organizing this club.

They Aim To Please

The Barons was a service club for the tenth grade boys at Narbonne. In the club, the Barons more or less ushered the night performances of Narbonne, such as football games, our fall play, etc. Mr. Backstrom, one of our deans, sponsored this club and was happy to be asked to help them. Fifteen members made up Barons, although only two are pictured.

Mr. Benson, our other dean, sponsored the Squires. They were an eleventh grade service club. The Squires mainly performed the same duties as the Barons. They ushered the night performances here at Narbonne also. This club had about 20 members who enjoyed every minute of their time given to help.

Mrs. Palmquist loved sponsoring the Baronettes. This club had approximately 15 members.

The Baronettes was a service club of tenth grade girls. Their duty was to serve refreshments at our Homecoming dance, Christmas dance, the Senior Parents Reception, etc. Also at Christmas, they donated their time to give gifts to the children in the hospital. If any of you tenth grade girls missed out on all the fun, well there's always Jane Addams.

Chess: the game of conquerors. Narbonne plays chess, and to prove it, we had a chess club. The club, sponsored by Mr. Wiker, met at lunch in room F-7 on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

There were 19 members in the club and their president was David Chin. You probably remember hearing their challenge over the P.A. system to other clubs for a chess tournament. Sounds fair, doesn't it?! A big event for chess club was the Piatigosky Chess Foundation Tournament at Birmingham High which was held on December 27th. Chess is a mind stimulating game. So all you unstimulated people should CHECK IT OUT!

The French Club consisted of about thirty members this year. This club was one of our more involved languages clubs at Narbonne. The French Club experimented with French food at home, such as snails, which are conconsidered a delicacy in France, and brought them to school for the French Club to eat. This club also attends French movies and occasionally they were taken to see a French play. Mrs. Marissel sponsored the French Club and enjoyed it very much.

Mr. Sierra sponsored our Bi-Lingual Education for College Admission, or better known to you as BECA. This club was for college bound bi-lingual students. This is a fairly new club, beginning only last year. This has been a better year for the BECA club which consisted of thirty students. Their activities included cooking latin American food and eating at their fiestas held during lunch. Mr. Sierra is very pleased with this club and hopes for bigger and better BECA opportunities in the near future.

Deutscher Klub. What was that? Come again? Deutscher Klub means German club, which was sponsored by Mrs. Benko. The purpose of this club was to understand the people of Germany, their custom, food, and land. They met every two weeks during the last 25 minutes of lunch. There was 20 members this past year. A couple of activities they held were a luncheon with German food held on December 5, 1979, and going to the Oktober Fest at Alpine Village. "This was a very active club this year," said Mrs. Benko, very happy about the club.

Here's Tomorrow's Food For Thought; FFA

One may have seen how nice the agricultural centers were and wondered who has been taking care of it. Well, the Future Farmers of America, are the ones, better known to Narbonne as FFA. This club spent a long two periods everyday working in the fields. First period, they trained in valuable skills of agricultural vegetation, and the other period, they mainly concentrated on skills of taking care of livestock. All these skills were not just for a grade but used for the annual contest sponsored by their national club.

There were approximately thirty members in FFA that year which was a great improvement compared to the last year. For twenty-seven years, a dedicated Mr. Mann has been sponsoring the FFA. And has taught his members useful tools to become successful farmers. "Girls made the club this year. If it weren't for the girls giving their touch of originality it would've been the same as the years before." claimed Mr. Mann as he proudly glanced at his members.

A Time to Reach Out, Share, and Experience

Mr. Mogil, sponsor of the Multiple Schlerosis club, considers this club as "one of the finest on campus." Making students aware of the sickness that can be contacted by others and performing services to help others form the basis of the club. There are thirty-four members who meet every Monday at lunch to discuss various fund raisers and patient services. One of these services is the annual Christmas party held in the Multipurpose room here at Narbonne.

A new club on campus is the Afroettes. Mrs. Kirby, their sponsor, stated that the group hopes to become a social and service club. Afroettes was formed out of the Multi-cultural club. A few girls wanted to establish a new cultural club and in a short time the wheels got in motion. One project that was planned was visiting the Martin Luther King Hospital and performing for the children's ward. Good Luck Afroettes!

Another one of the many new clubs around is the backgammon club, sponsored by Mrs. Mary White. There are about fifteen people in the club and they meet every Wednesday at lunch. The two students credited with starting the club are Nancy Horn and Deborah Hunter, president and Vice-president respectively. The backgammon club does more than just play backgammon, they also plan on starting tournaments.

Expressions . . .

I bet you always wondered what was going on in Room D1 at lunch on Wednesday? Well, you're finally going to find out. It has been Narbonne's very own great and dynamic Speech Club practicing for all those competitions. They seemed to practice all the time, including lunch period and also during Miss Marcelle's conference. Amazing! Miss Marcelle is so dedicated that she sacrifices her conference period.

against the stiffest of competition. There were 22 official members, which was not bad for a speech club.

There were many other competitions throughout the school year, the speech club must constantly read and practice speeches for the many difficult competitions.

The entire speech club members were winners and they proved it by having a fantastic year.

ICC or the Inter-club Council was made up of representatives from each club on campus. They met to discuss club projects, problems, and constitutions. ICC had the power to kick a club off campus if they didn't submit a constitution and a representative in the allotted time. President of ICC, Jack Calof, was responsible for organizing and keeping everyone informed. Mr. Jung, the sponsor, stated that ICC planned on having a game day, that is, one day every other week where ICC opened the MPR and let students come in and exchange their I.D.'s for a game.

It seemed that this was the year that Narbonne's Marching Band would make everyone aware of their presence, on campus, and off campus. Their obvious participation in the halftimes was much enjoyed, and their representation of Narbonne at parades left a noteworthy impression on others not familiar with Narbonne. This year's band was comprised mostly of sophomores, but there were also plenty of experience coming from the juniors and seniors. Spotlighting this year were Darren Miyagawa, Mark Vincellette, and Eddie Gonzales,—selected for the All-City Marching Band. Back at Narbonne, under the direction of Mr. Powell and the two drum majors: Jarcelyn Jamerson and Chris Pouliot, Narbonne's Marching Band practiced to get their moves just right, and it all came out fine!

With the entrance of an exciting football and basketball season, it turned out that the Pep Club was on their feet more than on their seat. The members numbered well over 100, and they were a lot bigger and louder than previous Pep Clubs. "It's the best Pep Club that Narbonne has ever had, and that's the truth!" quipped Mrs. Ansite, when asked that ever-popular question: How do you feel about the Pep Club? Mrs. Ansite also informed us that the Pep Club follows instructions well, which is surprising. Each member had a jersey, a pin and they sat in a special part of the bleachers. The leaders of Pep Club were: Sherri Piper, Cheryle McCard, Jill Garrison, and Rachel Echavarria.

High Steppers

Practice, practice, and more practice helped make our '79-'80 pep units number one at the football games, parades and competitions. Often, you would have been able to find all the units working hard after school getting routines right. And since their own peers judged them, aside from the competition judges, it made them work even harder.

The Small Flags, comprised mostly of juniors, did their part to liven things up with bright flags and sharp routines. There were 10 small flags and their leader was senior Lorna Juan. The four captains of the dominantly sophomore drill team were Janice Matsuyama, Patti Oto, Betty Lamphen, and Kelly Yolton. There were more members this year and they were all spirited and disciplined.

Narbonne's Colorguard, led by Jeannette Pandolfi, performed well and were honored with the fact that 3 of their 5 members, Lisa Salva, Diana Ferrer, and Jeanette Pandolfi, were selected to the All-City Colorguard and marched with the All-City Band in important events.

The units most important competition had been split into two sections, small flags, and cheerleaders, and drill team and tall flags. They practiced under the supervision of Miss Berry and Mrs. Norton.

Lighting the fuses of the crowds at our sports events were our Varsity and Bee cheerleaders. It was hard work and it took a special kind of person to get up in front of the crowd to cheer and get the crowd to cheer also.

To start off, the cheerleaders spent four days at a cheerleading camp at Santa Barbara College where they won a trophy for "The Hardest Working School." With that honor under their belts, they went on to add spirit to good ol' Narbonne. Notice, for the first time, in a long time, Narbonne High had a yell leader: Larry Kisby. Larry started after a couple of games, and successfully got the crowds riled up.

All in all it was a great year for the cheerleaders, mascot, and yell leader.

Sports

From football to baseball, soccer to tennis, Narbonne had a large variety of sports to choose from. On the whole, our teams did alright, winning as well as losing. A great improvement, though, was our Varsity football team. Losing only one game, our team had a reason to be proud! But all our teams worked hard, practicing during and after school throughout the weeks of school. They were all dedicated to their sport and put all they had into it, even if they all didn't win every game. There were a few big turnouts to a few sports, such as football and basketball, and small turnout to others. Others went to all the games to cheer on their favorites. The teams deserved a lot more credit than a lot of people gave them. They put effort, concentration, and a lot of time into what they did. They probably worked harder than most people do on their homework.

Varsity Freeway League Champs!

Out of the many new changes that took place this year at Narbonne, none has been more dramatic than our placement in a new football league the Freeway (triple A) League. It was an outstanding season of nine wins, one tie, and one loss. Although the team lost a "sudden death" tiebreaker at the City Semi-Finals against Canoga Park, they were still the undefeated champions of the Freeway League. There was much more excitement and enthusiasm at all the games than there was years before.

The pre-league victory over Gardena, whom we hadn't beaten for the past twenty-three years, marked the beginning of a great new fall season. Head Coach Jack Epstein, who was voted Coach of the Year by the L.A. Times, was aware of the team situation before the season opened. Last year they were very young and energetic. This year there were many returning players which added good experience to the team. Coaches Epstein, Hultz, Intermill, and Griffin knew they had an excellent team.

In fact, it was better than they anticipated. Most of the strength came from a strong defensive team. Only two teams were able to rush more than a hundred yards against them all season. As the offensive team grew stronger, Narbonne found itself on its way to the play-offs. Outstanding individuals were: Most Valuable Offensive Player—Mike DeCastro and Most Valuable Defensive Player—Pili Tutuvanu. School records were set by Brian Wiley—most carries (28 in a game, 94 in a season) and most yards gained (225 in a game, 246 in a season), George Mix—six season interceptions, and Doug Judge—a 98 yard touchdown pass interception.

Bone Crushing Bees

The 1979 Bee Football season went really well. With returning players and some new faces, we had a bright new team. They were quick fast, and over powering. They made some costly errors, but even USC make errors. But, like everyone else, they learned from their mistakes and through every game they tried to change the things that were wrong. There just happened to be another team that was a little bit better. Leading the Bees were Robert Simpson, starting quarterback. He was the key factor in most of the games. Mike Koch also had a good season. He won every game he started as quarterback. Good work bees, and good luck to the bees of the future.

Two City Champions

Our Varsity team consisted of six seniors and one junior all of who were returning Lettermen. Outstanding runner, Mark Emdee made it this year as City Champ. Coach Didinger commented that team work was the key that helped them through the season.

Placing second in the Marine league, Narbonne had the Largest J.V. team in the league. There was a total of twenty-seven runners on this team. Two of the most outstanding were Dan Watson and Art Hamilton, both returning runners.

The Sophomores weren't the only ones to place second in the league. The girls also ran very well. Some of the outstanding runners were Sharlene McGinley, Kit Fagan, and Yvette Olsen, they were all returning runners.

Victorious! Marine

THE 1979 soccer team had a great start this season. Their quick moves didn't stop after winning the first game, but improved as the season went on. They put a lot of hard work and hours in after school. And sometimes during their vacations a few of them got together and went running. Leading the varsity were seniors Jose Garcia, Darren Johnson, and Greg Abille, playing as Starting goalie. Well, their hard working season paid off. They went undefeated in the league and went on to become Marine League Champs. Coach Murietta was very impressed as this was his first season to win the title since he has been coaching soccer. CONGRATULATIONS! We are all very proud of you.

Because of conflicting schedules, schools that didn't have teams, and fights, the JV teams played very few games. Sometimes, though the players were substituted into the varsity team. But the games that were played, were well and skillfully played. With this much enthusiasm maybe they can put it into the varsity team for next year.

The girls Basketball team, which was better known as the "gauchoettes," got off to a fine start. With the coaching of Mr. Backstrom and their three managers—Dominique Paterson, Bret Ivie, and Debra Graham, the girls struggled to end a trying season. This was the first year Mr. Backstrom coached a girls basketball team. As the season came to an end the "gauchoettes" were going through considerable changes. They were playing more aggressive games, the scores were closer and more points were scored. Despite all the hard work, the girls didn't win as many games as they would have liked.

The girls' tennis team was unable to get any higher than fifth place, but their coach, Mrs. Peck, was very pleased with their enthusiasm and their endurance. "They are a well disciplined and dedicated team and they really have their tennis together," quoted Mrs. Peck.

The strongest and best player on the team was junior, Rita Gutierrez. She had a strong backhand and excellent strategy which aided her in winning several games.

With the return of Rita Gutierrez and eight improving players, next year's team hopes for an even higher finish.

Gauchos Started Off Fast!

This year our Varsity Basketball team, coached by Mr. Mullin, was stronger and more hopeful than ever before. The team was led by outstanding players Mack Carter, Danny Kennard, and Robert Spiekerman. The team consisted of eight seniors and three juniors. The team was towering in size, with great shooting ability and rebound strategy. Coach Mullin said their main setback was that they lost too many close games. They began the season with the reputation of being one of the strongest teams in the Marine League, with great players who played hard and played to win. Although the team played hard they just couldn't get it together. Better luck next year.

Realizing Potential

It was a great season for Narbonne's Bee Basketball team, finishing second with impressive league and season records. They went 8 and 2 for the Marine League, and 15 and 4 for season. Four seniors, six juniors, and one sophomore made up this year's team. The guys knew they were in an extremely competitive league and worked diligently. Unfortunately, there was a bitter note. All felt they should have beaten Gardena in their first game. The loss was blamed partly on the officials and the team's overconfidence when they built up an 18-point lead in the first half. Coach Hoppes owes their outstanding accomplishments to the fact that the group realized their potential early. Also, he commented, "They were a together team, played extremely good defense, and they were very unselfish.

JV's in Action

When watching the boys J.V. Basketball team in action, you can see a team that gets the very best out of their game. Under the direction of Coach John Wills, the 1979-1980 team did fairly well this season. Entering many tournaments, they placed 5th in the Marine League. "The teams best advantages," said Coach Wills, "were the fastbreaks, defensive rebounds, and passing to open men." At their first league game they went into 3 overtimes, but were defeated by the Carson Colts by one point. The outstanding players were David Ashe, James Ferguson, Roy Mix, Archie Tarver, Rod Timmons, Timmy Tucker. Coach Wills, states that it was a fair season. It had good points and bad points. But we'll do better next year. He also sent a little message to all the Gauchos, Ta'amuamua le atua i mea umro lava and taumafai, which means Place God before all things and to try hard.

C's Gain Experience

Hardwork, practice, and good coaching from Mr. Bob Hoppes enabled the 1979-1980—"C" basketball team to capture a majority of their victories. The various skills, passing, shooting, and rebounding demonstrated by most of the team members proved that the "C" team really knew their game. There were many bright spots in the season with a consistent effort shown by all team members. Narbonne was led by talent like Chris Honma and Mark Matsuda. The "C's" went into action with great strategy of rebounding, centering, shooting, guarding, and forwarding. An overall outlook of these fine players showed they can very possibly bring a renewed look in future years.

Varsity Baseball

The 1980 baseball team was looking forward to a very successful season last spring with many returning letterman. These included Keith Adriance, Manuel Almora, Mike McNalley, Jerry Moore, Mike deCastro, Lazaro Garcia, Elier Morejon, Mike Norcio, Gerald Ricard, and Jose Rodriguez. All Marine League deCastro at third base stabilized the infield. "We had two good catchers and the outfielders were fast," stated Coach Marlon Strong.

Don McMahon, pitching coach for the San Francisco giants, gave our pitchers some added help and tips prior to season play. A huge asset to the baseball program had been the addition of a pitching machine. Coach Strong had scheduled the toughest teams in the area for games. The Gauchos participated in the Palos Verdes and Easter Hawthorne baseball tournament.

1. Mike DeCastro patiently awaits the arrival of the ball.
2. Gerald Ricard really gets into the game, concentrating on every throw.

"This year's JV team", from the words of Coach Intermill," is strong, aggressive, and fundamentally sound." They are composed of 8 juniors and 14 sophomores. The aspect that makes this team so unique, is that they're all new members, including Coach Intermill. Being new gives them the advantage. It makes it easier for the players to adjust to the new coaches style. Since they are in the toughest league in the city, their inexperience might be a setback, but they plan to overcome this problem by playing good fundamental baseball. They are an exciting and aggressive team. Their strategy is to force the opposing teams to make the mistakes. If determination is what it takes to be a winner, then this years JV team will be just that!

Practice Makes Perfect!

This years' Varsity Softball team was coached by Mrs. Peck and the J.V. team was coached by Miss Kordones. On the Varsity team there were six returning players and eight new players. The team strengths came from the good pitching and hitting. The team weakness was errors in fielding and throwing and their inexperience. Mrs. Peck said the seasons outlook was good and they had already won their first two games 10-4 and 20-4. The new factors that affected the team were the addition of a second good pitcher and really good talent!

On the J.V. team there were two returning, and thirteen new players. The team had a pretty experienced infield and two strong pitchers. Many of the players have played in organized summer leagues and therefore had some experience beforehand. The team weakness was the inexperienced outfield, but the girls were working hard to improve on that.

Badminton: A Sissy Sport?

People who think Badminton is a sissy sport, have probably never really seen Badminton played as a competitive sport. Badminton is very popular in other countries, but only now becoming a popular sport in the United States. The game is somewhat similar to tennis but is played with a feathered birdie. It is a very fast, exciting, and certainly one of the most grueling sports. This year's Badminton team had six returning players and nine new players. When asked who are your "outstanding" players Miss Kordones, the Badminton coach replied, "All are unique and outstanding in their own right." The team strength came from the returning, experienced players which were: Mary Oatridge (third doubles), Inex Furriel and Anita Schmidt (first doubles), Cheryl Bruno (third singles), and Doreen Yamauchi (first singles). The team's weakness was that they needed more time to practice and to improve on general skills and conditioning.

The team had an excellent chance to place among the top three in the league.

It Takes Teamwork!

The Volleyball team had gotten off to a fine start and the season's outlook was "excellent", said Mr. Parker the girl's Volleyball coach. This year's team had four seniors, eight juniors, and five sophomores with seven returning lettermen and seven new players. The outstanding players on the Varsity team were Karen Hammett, Kim Martinsen, and Norma Perez. On the J.V. team the outstanding player was Roxanne Keffer. Mr. Parker said the team strengths were that the team had several powerful spikers, good passing, and good defense. Their only major weakness is teamwork. When the girls stop working as a team and their defense is down they would always hear Mr. Parker shouting, "Shake it off!" Then the "gauchos" begin playing like a winning team!

One good group of highly talented players is the boys' tennis team consisting of six seniors, nine juniors, and ten sophomores. Out of the twenty-five members on the team, nineteen normally plays in competition. Outstanding players are Donald Toda, Mike Tapp, Hoang Tu, Asad Ghotzbzadeh, and Carl Sexton. These players along with the rest of the team have a real good chance to place high in the league. This year's new coach is Mr. Haley. He is really proud of his enthusiastic, hard-working team and has high hopes for all of them. "Strong new tenth grade players help push the eleventh and twelfth grade players," he stated, "I'm looking forward to a successful season."

Awesome!

Something good is going to come out of this very young team, including a pretty strong varsity. The J.V. and sophomore teams are all beginning swimmers and have a lot to learn and a long way to go, but if the team, as a whole, keeps working out hard and improving, it will have a successful year. Assistant coaches Taylor and Young are doing a fine job and the team is starting to come together. Outstanding swimmers are David Hallmark, Doug Wallace, Sheryl Luera, Jeff Beal, Susan Kodaira, Linda Kodaira, Richard Kerr, Mike Koch, Doug Pumphrey, and Julie Carper. Improving sophomores are Amber Fine, Jennifer Freshi, Tina Cheer, Lem Hunter, Juanita Castle, Jeff Niewendyk, and Donna Snider. The J.V. team is composed of new hard-working eleventh and twelfth grade swimmers. "Swimming is a very competitive and difficult sport to compete in." stated Coach Robert Hultz, "It takes a lot of dedication and hard work. We are hoping for an exciting and fun season."

A Good Season Outlook

A scoop of seniors, a scoop of juniors, and a dash of sophomores was the recipe for our Varsity Track team. Their strengths were mainly in the long distance, with Mark Emdee and the hurdles, with Mike Mickens, Bryan Wiley, and Kendall Williams. They started shaky in the field events and middle distance, but the season outlook was fairly good.

Promising was the word to describe our Bee Track team, with such competitors as Keenan Backstrom, Joseph Ferrarer, and hurdler Sandy Ivey. The large turnout for the team was mixed, having plenty of seniors, juniors, and sophomores. Coach Backstrom commented at the beginning of the season that he was looking for good things this year. The strongest events of the Cee Track team appeared to be in the sprint and their middle distant running. The team was dominantly sophomore, and their outstanding members were Ira Irvine, George Bland, Charles Lomboy, and Leamon Stansell. The season outlook was good and Coach Backstrom saw the team as outstanding.

1. Marie Hulett, Sharlene McGinley and friend warm up for the next track meet.

The team did great in their sprinting, field events, and high jumps. The thing that slowed them down was the distance running, but the girls practiced hard to win in this event. Many of the girls were very young but that didn't stop them from trying their best and gaining the confidence they needed.

Practice and Teamwork

"We plan to devastate the league with treacherous offensive plays and surprisingly quick defensive moves," gushed David Brady, member of the team. Consisting of 18 players, the Boy's Volleyball team practiced from 3:00-5:30 some days, and 5:30-7:30 on other days. It took a lot of practice and patience to become as good as they wanted, and they owed a lot to their coach who ... "volunteered his valuable time to coach an unseen team for nothing. What a guy!" But let's give the team credit! Outstanding players were: Mark Paulson, Kerry Maetani, Bill Camp, Roy Kageyama, Mitch Sakamoto, and Pili Tutuvanu. Teamwork was a major factor in their style, as Brady was quoted, "On the court the team energy is at an optimum and flows from one player to another."

The Desire To Work

Our boy's gymnastics team had their work cut out for them when the Marine and Western League combined to form a new league called the Western League. The newly formed Western League consisting of Banning, Gardena, Venice, University, and Hamilton, was stiff competition for our team because three of the teams in this new league were in the City Play-offs last year.

Top gymnasts were Joe Bagley, Ralph Flores, and Chris Lomboy. The promising new sophomores were Scott Mastroluca, Mike Pruett, and Miguel Rodriguez. When asked about the qualities of the boys' gymnastics team, Coach Murrieta replied, "Just the desire to work."

1. With great extension, Marshall Fontanoza, a verteran, completes a handspring off the vault.
2. Performing an iron cross, Mike Pruett is a promising gymnast for the near future.
3. Captain Joe Bagley performs doubles on the pommel horse with great ease.

Seniors

When we came to Narbonne we were younger—chasing dreams and following rainbows. But now as our day of recognition has arrived, we've become older, wiser, and a little more assured of our dreams. We are ready now to venture out and display our knowledge to the outside world.

In the following pages are contained not only our senior portraits, but the final debut of our senior high years. This is our tribute of three hard years of fun, work, and growing up. For we now not only have our dreams to follow, but also our memories to help us along the way.

1. I don't know about you, says Eddie Barba, but I'm worried about that test next period!
2. Eric Jefferson poses modestly for the photographer.
3. Stacey Sato keeps wondering what everybody finds so funny!

Oh my God! It's almost time.
Wonder if her parents are home.
I can't wait for him to meet Dad.
Maybe I won't have to meet them.
Bet he's wearing a tux.
Stupid tux is so uncomfortable.
I really don't want to wear heels.
With heels she's just my size.
Oh no! That's his car.
Well, take a deep breath you're here.
The Door, "Mom, Dad!"
Steady son, maybe her parents died.
Ding-Dong
Oh no!
What am I doing?
Open the door
Run you idiot while there is still time.
"Hi"
It's gonna be wonderful.

Many of us had different ideas about the closing of the school year. Some were positive and some negative. Nevertheless here are some of your points of view that we caught on to.

Well, here I am. Please don't ask me whether I liked being a sophomore or not, cause I couldn't tell you. It was really scary at first, but then I met a lot of new friends and even met a really special person who took me to my first homecoming dance at the Edgewater Hyatt House. It was the best night of my life. But then I think of the 2 long years I have to go until it's my turn to graduate. I could just scream. But like they say, I'll just have to grin and bear it! Class of '82 here I come! . . .

Boy, am I glad I'm not a sophomore. I can just barely handle thinking about going to school for 1 more year let alone 2. But I have to admit it was great! Especially those Friday night football games and going to Burger King afterwards. I'll never forget those great times with my friends and all those crazy things we did. Well, I just can't wait until next year. We'll just [illegible] again! [illegible] have it. I'm ac[illegible] and [illegible] of all those hard [illegible] wishe[illegible] out of school [illegible] ould st[illegible] over because I [illegible] ad. I [illegible] probably been the best 3 years of my life and I never realized it until now. I just wish I could have known what I know now when I was in 10th grade instead of wishing my life away. School, teachers and friends had to be the most important asset in my life. And I think they've prepared me for the world. The only question is, is—Is the world ready for me?

So, the end of another school year is here. Some of us look at it differently than others. Some look at it as the beginning of another 2 years in high school. Others look at it as the beginning of life. Whatever the thoughts they were all happy and maybe a little sad and we were there to catch on to how they felt.

We Caught On!!!

We made it happen, in spite of the monumental odds. The yearbook staff had many problems to contend with this year, such as: a new, unfamiliar publishing company, a new studio which took the senior pictures and group pictures, and many inexperienced staff members. In spite of these odds, the yearbook staffers rallied to produce an outstanding El Eco. We strived for many new things like senior colored pictures, a clean graphic design throughout the yearbook, and more candids to include the majority of Narbonne's student body. Much extra effort was involved in producing this year's El Eco. A core of the yearbook staff spent many extra hours at lunch time, after school, on Saturdays, holidays, and any other spare moments between classes.

All in all we caught on to all the happenings, people, and their emotions at Narbonne in the year of 1979-1980!

Money! Money! Money! Where did it all go? Not to the 1980 El Eco Yearbook. Although each one of the El Eco Staff members was required to sell at least a page of ads this year, most of them did not. Getting advertisements was hard. Because of inflation, some of our regular advertisers could not afford to buy an ad, and so our staff members gave up. But not all of them did. There were a few persistent members who continued to try, and it paid off because we got the ads that we needed. Thanks to our few staff members who sold the advertisements and the generous patrons who bought them we didn't have to raise the price of the annual to an outrageous amount. The El Eco Staff would like to express our thanks to all of the advertisers and patrons who helped us out this year.

1. Joanne Yoshizu convinces a patron that buying an ad is worthwhile to his business.
2. Telling him where to sign his name, Stephanie Gibson succeeds in selling a patron to our advisor, Mr. Talley.
3. Making a sale, Kelly Nagata gets ready to ask whether they would like to be billed or not.
